Artist Biographies

Chris Amos (Spurio) is pleased to return to The Shakespeare Project. Chicago credits include Remy Bumpo, Northlight, BoHo Theatre, American Theatre Company, Provision, and Chicago Shakespeare. Regional credits include multiple seasons at the Illinois Shakespeare Festival and the Utah Shakespeare Festival. Chris holds an MFA in acting from Roosevelt University in Chicago, and BAs in both music and theatre from Oklahoma State University.

Deborah Clifton (Gratiana) is happy to appearing with all her Shakespeare Project friends, new and old. She was most recently seen in True West at The Alchemist Theatre and Welcome Home Jenny Sutter at Next Act. Her credits include The Goodman Theatre, Chicago Shakespeare, Milwaukee Repertory, Milwaukee Shakespeare, Madison Rep., Chamber Theatre, Forward Theatre and many years as a member of the Theatre X ensemble. She and her husband, John Kishline, toured India with his play Success, part of the Hindu Plus Theatre Festival and sponsored by the US State Dept. The Shakespeare Project has an extraordinary mission in bringing classic plays to libraries in Chicago. With tight budgets, the opportunity to perform these classics with large casts of Equity actors in rare. Deborah made her debut with The Project in The Parvenu in 2004. She is eternally grateful to Peter and everyone at The Shakespeare Project.

Matthew Fahey (Hippolito) is a big fan of the wonderful artists that The Shakespeare Project attracts and the words they get to speak. He most recently was honored to be part of the ensemble in the Remy Bumpo production of Our Class. He has also worked with Lookingglass Theatre, Theatre Banshee (Los Angeles), Summer Shakespeare at Notre Dame, Chicago Dramatists, Court Theatre, Steppenwolf Theatre, Drury Lane Evergreen Park, Organic Theatre, Victory Gardens, Colorado Shakespeare Festival, Shakespeare on the Green, Buffalo Theatre Ensemble, Prop Thtr, Timberlake Playhouse and The Free Associates, among others. He is a graduate of the Second City Conservatory, Second City Music Conservatory, the Annoyance improv program and studied with Del Close at ImproVlympic. He studied stage combat (SAFD recommended) with Chuck Coyl and John McFarland and is a proud member of Actor's Equity.

Patrick Gagnon (Ambitioso) is very pleased to be working with The Shakespeare Project of Chicago. He is fresh off a run of The Pirates of Penzance! at Actors Theatre of Louisville, and recently appeared at the American Repertory Theatre in Cambridge, MA. An actor, songwriter, and composer, Matt is a company member of The Hypocrites and has performed in Chicago with Victory Gardens, Lakeside Shakespeare, Lifeline, The Factory Theatre, The Mammals, and AdventureStage Chicago.

Charles Stransky (Second Noble) is delighted to be working with The Shakespeare Project once again. Earlier this season, he appeared as Gloucester in The Project's King Lear. Last season, he appeared in The Fair Maid of the West. Previous appearances with The Project include A Woman Killed with Kindness, The Tempest and Measure for Measure. A veteran character actor of stage, television and film, Charles attended graduate school at Brandeis University, where he earned his MFA Degree in Acting. He then worked in Chicago at the beginning of its burgeoning theatre movement before being called to Broadway. His numerous credits reflect the various venues he has performed in, from regional theatre to Off-Broadway to Broadway, and from day player parts to leading roles on film and television. On Broadway he played Link in the original production of Glengarry Glen Ross and in the Goodman's original production and the national tour. He was in The Lincoln Center Theatre's production of The Front Page at The Vivian Beaumont, playing Wilson, one of the reporters. He has played in regional theatres throughout the U.S., including the Goodman, Old Globe, Northlight, Capital Repertory, American Players Theatre, Riverside, Kitchen, the Delaware Theatre Company, the State Theatre in Austin, Texas, the Vermont Stage Company, and Wisdom Bridge. On film, he can be seen in The Spanish Prisoner, Homicide, and Things Change, all written and directed by David Mamet. Other films include Dad, Stone Cold, Ghost in the Machine, Anger Management, Caleb's Door, Winning Season, and Pastime. He has been a proud member of Actors' Equity Association (AEA) and SAG/AFRA for over thirty years.

Ashley Wickett (Castiza) is thrilled to be making her debut with The Project in this reading of The Revenger's Tragedy! Most recently she could be seen as Sylvia and Lucetta in The Two Gentlemen of Verona at the Indiana Repertory Theatre. She has worked at several regional Theatres across the country including The Pioneer Theatre Company, The American Conservatory Theatre, California Shakespeare Theatre, The Livermore Shakespeare Festival and The New Harmony Project. Along with her passion for acting, she has a love for teaching and has worked as a teaching artist with various companies including Stages on the Sound (Brooklyn, NY), Groves Performing Arts Company (Birmingham, MI), and the Emerald City Theatre here in Chicago! Ashley holds her MFA in Acting from the American Conservatory Theatre and her BFA in Theatre Performance from the University of Evansville. She would like to thank Peter Garino and everyone at The Project, Stewart Talent, her family and her wonderful husband, Patrick.

Peter Garino (Director) is a founding member of The Shakespeare Project of Chicago and has served as Artistic Director since June 2010. He recently appeared in 50-Minute Romeo and Juliet at Hofstra University's 66th Annual Shakespeare Festival in Hempstead, NY. He directed King Lear for The Project in October. This coming September, he will direct a special benefit performance of Tom Stoppard's Darkside for The Project. Last season he directed Thomas Heywood's The Fair Maid of the West and appeared as Lord LaFew in All's Well That Ends Well and as Antonio in The Merchant of Venice. Directing credits for The Shakespeare Project include: The Reign of King Edward III, A Woman Killed with Kindness, Othello, The Tempest, Richard II, Measure For Measure, Antony and Cleopatra, The Importance of Being Earnest, A Woman of No Importance, Pericles (1996 and 2008), The Taming of the Shrew, 2 Henry IV, A Midsummer Night's Dream, and his own adaptations of Shakespeare's sonnets and songs, My Name Is Will, and The Rape of Lucrece. On-stage appearances with The Project include Agamemnon in Troilus & Cressida, George Page in The Merry Wives of Windsor, Cardinal Wolsey in Henry VIII, Lord Stanley in Richard III, Duke Senior and Duke Frederick in As You Like It, and many others. Peter has worked with the Steppenwolf and Organic Theatre companies, the Body Politic, Pegasus Players, Oak Park Festival

Theatre and Illinois Shakespeare Festival (three seasons). He attended the National Shakespeare Conservatory and holds a Master of Fine Arts degree in Acting from Illinois State University and a Bachelor of Arts in Theatre Arts from Hofstra University, New York. He is a proud member of Actors' Equity Association, and SAG/AFTRA. Special thanks to Helene and Glen.

Kelly Lynn Hogan (Assistant Director) The recipient of an M.A. in Performance Studies at Tisch/NYU and an M.F.A. in Classical Acting from The Academy of Classical Acting at The George Washington University, in affiliation with The Shakespeare Theatre, D.C., Kelly brings to bear an extensive experience in the movement systems of Rudolf Laban and Jacques Lecoq in her directing, producing, and acting efforts. For SPC, Kelly assistant directed this season's Macbeth for David Skidmore. She also recently assisted Michael Haney in a joint production of Wendy Wasserstein's The Heidi Chronicles at St. Louis Rep and Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park. For Vivalist Theatre, she directed Cubana playwright Laura Liz Gil Echenique's Las Morsas (The Walrus) for 2015's International Voices Project, associate-produced and created the role of Second Maggie for the powerhouse The Mill on the Floss, and associate-produced Theatre d'Complicite's adaptation of John Berger's The Three Lives of Lucie Cabrol. With Chicago's Frump Tucker Theatre Company, she resided as dramaturg and directed productions of Eric Overmyer's In Perpetuity Throughout the Universe and Maria Irene Fornes' Conduct of Life. As an academic, Kelly served as Visiting Instructor for the Dept. of Theatre at Knox College, Galesburg IL, where she directed productions of Caryl Churchill's Cloud 9, Lynn Nottage's Intimate Apparel, and Tony Kushner's Angels in America: Millennium Approaches – as part of a repertory presentation of both Mr. Kushner's plays. As an actor, Kelly has received critical acclaim from the Chicago theatre community for her interpretations of Kattrin in Mother Courage and Her Children, the title role in Helen Edmundson's adaptation of Leo Tolstoy's Anna Karenina, and a Jeff nomination for supporting actress in Rebecca Lenkiewicz's The Night Season – all for Vivalist Theatre, a company she helped to inaugurate in 1997. Chicago acting credits include Chicago Dramatists, Body Politic, Piven, Raven, and Court, among many others.

Regina Buccola (Dramaturge) is Associate Professor and Chair of the Department of Literature and Languages at Roosevelt University in Chicago, where she also serves as core faculty in Women's and Gender Studies and in Creative Writing. She has published several books on early modern British drama and culture, most recently as editor of A Midsummer Night's Dream: A Critical Guide and co-editor, with Peter Kanelos, of Chicago Shakespeare Theatre: Suiting the Action to the Word. She serves as the scholar in residence at Chicago Shakespeare Theatre, and is one of the Midwest American reviewers for the online journal Reviewing Shakespeare. Buccola's creative work can be seen with the Chicago political sketch comedy show Democracy Burlesque; she is also a published poet, the author of the chapbook, Conjuring. Her poetry has also recently appeared in The Journal of Kentucky Studies and Women's Studies: An Interdisciplinary Journal.

George Zahora (Sound and Music Design) has done sound design, in various professional and non-professional capacities, for more than 20 years. He's currently enjoying his fourth season as The Project's unofficial resident sound designer; you may have heard his sound effects and original music in King Lear, Macbeth, All's Well That Ends Well, The Two Gentlemen of Verona, The Fair Maid of the West, Edward III, A Woman Killed with Kindness and Othello, among others. He sincerely appreciates your support of The Project and the excellent Chicago artists it employs, and hopes that his work on The Revenger's Tragedy will add context and depth to your experience today.

Sound effects used in this production may include materials created by users of Freesound.org, which are used under a Creative Commons license. Due to printing deadlines, we cannot credit individual users here. Please see our sound designer for an up-to-date list of contributors and effects.

A discussion of the play will follow this performance

* Members of Actors' Equity Association

+ Founding member, The Shakespeare Project of Chicago

We are very excited to announce that we have obtained the rights to produce a single performance of Tom Stoppard's newest play, Darkside. The proceeds raised from this benefit performance will help fund our education outreach program.

Darkside was originally broadcast as a radio play by BBC2 in 2013. The Shakespeare Project of Chicago will stage a live performance of the play with an all-Equity cast at Chicago's Mayne Stage located at 1328 W. Morse Avenue, Chicago on Sunday, September 27, 2015 at 7:00PM.

Darkside has been described as vintage Stoppard, a philosophical feast that touches on everything from analytical philosophy and ethics to game theory and altruism. The play incorporates music from one of the most important and ground-breaking rock albums of all time, "The Dark Side of the Moon" by Pink Floyd with lyrics by Roger Waters.

If you would like to be added to our mailing list to receive more information about this special benefit performance please send an email to:

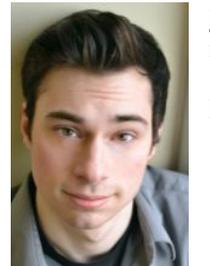

darkside@shakespeareprojectchicago.org.

Scott Lynch Giddings (Judge, First Noble) began working with The Project back in the 1990's, performing in eight productions, voicing the title role in the 1995 taping of Macbeth for CRIS radio, and directing its first production of the long neglected Edward III. In the current millennium he has appeared in The Project's Macbeth, King Lear, The Fair Maid of the West, and its second production of that same neglected Edward III. He's been fortunate to play many Shakespearean roles on Chicago stages, favorites including Jacques, Prince Hal and Henry V, Lysander, and, a long time ago, Hamlet. He has penned three plays of his own, one of which, his young people's comedy Argonuts, was produced last month at Pasadena's popular Theatre 360. His Shakespearean-style play A Fancyfull Historie of Robin Hood has been staged in the U.S. and Europe, most recently in rep with Much Ado About Nothing at the Sacramento Shakespeare Festival. Scott is particularly pleased to share a stage today with Christopher Prentice (Vindici), who played the title role in his Robin Hood at the Oak Park Festival Theatre in 2007.

Steven Lee Johnson (Lussurioso) is thrilled to make his debut with The Shakespeare Project of Chicago. Chicago credits include Short Shakes! Macbeth, Short Shakes! A Midsummer Night's Dream and Chicago Shakespeare in the Parks production of A Midsummer Night's Dream with Chicago Shakespeare Theater. Regional credits include: Clybourne Park (Guthrie Theater); Red (Park Square Theatre); Beautiful Thing (Theater Latté Da); The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee (Hope Summer Repertory Theatre); Macbeth (Interlochen Shakespeare Festival); Over the Tavern (New American Theater); and Inspecting Carol (Artist's Ensemble). Television credits include Chicago Fire (NBC) and Masterclass with Bill T. Jones (HBO). Steven is a Presidential Scholar in the Arts and received his BFA in acting from the University of Minnesota/Guthrie Theater Actor Training Program. Upcoming: Romeo and Juliet and The Tempest at Door Shakespeare. In the fall, Steven will move to New Haven to pursue his MFA at Yale.

Patrick Kelly (Junior, Sordido, Third Lord, Guard) Patrick is thrilled to be making his debut with The Shakespeare Project of Chicago. He will be entering his junior year at the Chicago College of the Performing arts at Roosevelt University as an acting major this coming fall.

Sean Kelly (Piero, Third Prison Officer) is very excited to be making his Shakespeare Project of Chicago debut. He has previously appeared in Oak Park Festival Theatre's Hamlet. This fall he will be a junior acting major at Roosevelt University's Chicago College of Performing Arts where his educational credits include The El is for Loesser and You Can't Take it With You.

John Kishline (Duke) has been an actor, director, playwright and designer in professional theatre for 41 years. He served one or more of the above functions in 190 professional productions performed in 28 of the United States and in Holland, England, Wales, Ireland, Sweden, Germany and Japan. He toured India in 2011 in his play, Success, under the auspices of the U.S. State Department, performing in Delhi, Mumbai, Kolkata, Chennai and Hyderabad. He has written 11 produced plays and helped create at least 30 more from scratch as a founding member of Milwaukee's Theatre X and has performed for most of the theatres in Milwaukee. Other work has been performed in Madison, Rockford, and in Chicago at the Goodman Theatre, Seanachai Theatre and many times at Chicago Shakespeare Project. Some of his plays have been nominated for national and regional awards and his design work won an OBIE. He has done 4 films, the most well known being Public Enemies, in which he is the first fatality.

Madeline Pell (Gloriana, Dondolo, 2nd Prison Officer, Ambitioso's Henchman, Duke's Gentleman) is honored to be interning with The Shakespeare Project of Chicago. She is currently a student at the Chicago College of Performing Arts at Roosevelt University, pursuing a BFA in Acting. Past productions at the CCPA include: Cloud Nine (Mrs. Saunders/Betty), You Can't Take it With You (Penelope Sycamore), and Picnic (Rosemary Sydney). She would like to thank everyone involved in the production for this incredible opportunity.

Michael Pesoli (Supervacu) is returning to the Shakespeare Project after having been seen earlier this season in King Lear and Macbeth. Other credits include: Hamlet and All's Well That Ends Well with The Alabama Shakespeare Festival, and Romeo and Juliet with The New York Shakespeare Exchange. Education: Wagner College and The Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts.

Christopher Prentice (Vindici) is jazzed to return to Chicago and make his Shakespeare Project debut after five years in the acting company of Canada's Stratford Festival where he appeared in a dozen or so productions, including Measure for Measure (Claudio), Mary Stuart, Henry V (Nym), The Merry Wives of Windsor (Slender), The Grapes of Wrath, The Misanthrope, and Bartholomew Fair (Winwife). Most recently he appeared at the Illinois Shakespeare Festival in Much Ado About Nothing (Beatrice), Elizabeth Rex (Ned), and Antony and Cleopatra (Alexas). Chicago credits include Short Shakespeare! Romeo and Juliet (Mercutio, Chicago Shakespeare), Robin Hood (title role, Oak Park Festival), and work with

First Folio, Northlight, Next, Chicago Dramatists, Stage Left, Sansculottes, Boxer Rebellion, and New Leaf. A co-founder of Signal Ensemble Theatre, he appeared in Hamlet (title role), She Stoops to Conquer, and Waiting for Godot, among others, and directed Jeff-nominated productions of Old Wicked Songs and The Weir. Other regional acting credits include Montana Shakespeare in the Parks (title role, Macbeth), American Players Theatre, Milwaukee Rep, and Dallas Theater Center. Also a verse nurse, he recently coached text and was assistant director for Macbeth at The Artistic Home. A native Texan, he is a graduate of Southern Methodist University in Dallas. christopher-prentice.com, @PrenticeActor.

Michelle Shupe (Duchess) is thrilled to be appearing as Lady MacDuff with The Shakespeare Project of Chicago. She has appeared at various theaters throughout the country, including: Alabama Shakespeare Festival, Illinois Shakespeare Festival, The Shakespeare Theatre, the Goodman, Washington Shakespeare Company, Studio Theater, Theater J and many others. An active participant with The Shakespeare Project of Chicago, she has dramaturged a number of The Project's readings, is a co-adaptor of their educational outreach offering, 50-Minute Romeo and Juliet, and has performed in many staged readings. A budding director, Michelle has directed What You Will for Taffety Punk, DC and The Merchant of Venice for The Project.

Fredric Stone (Antonio, First Servant to Spurio, Prison Keeper) recently played Duncan and the Porter in Macbeth for the Shakespeare Project, as well as the title role in King Lear in October. Last season he appeared as Shylock in The Merchant of Venice, and previously appeared as Lord Audley in The Reign of King Edward III, as Master Cranwell in A Woman Killed With Kindness and as Brabantio and Gratiano in Othello. He played Pandarus in Troilus and Cressida, the Duke of York in Richard II, Prospero in The Tempest and Lord Burleigh in Mary Stuart. He is a proud founding member of The Shakespeare Project. Past roles include Lepidus, Thyreus, and the Clown in Antony and Cleopatra, Sir Anthony Absolute in The

Rivals, and roles in As You Like It, The Importance of Being Earnest, Much Ado About Nothing, Love's Labour's Lost, Faust, Ghosts, The Cricket on the Hearth and many others. In Chicago theatres, he has been featured in the acclaimed and Jeff recommended production of Scorched for the Silk Road Theatre, in The Chosen (David Malter) at Steppenwolf and in Trojan Women (Agamemnon) at the Goodman. At Chicago Shakespeare Theatre on Navy Pier he's been featured in many productions including Love's Labour's Lost (Boyet), Richard II (Northumberland), The Tempest (Alonso), Henry IV, and Henry V (multiple roles). He played the role of the Rabbi in Fiddler on the Roof at the Paramount Theatre in Aurora, Polonius in Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead (Writers' Theatre), as well as roles in Fires in the Mirror (Northlight), Beau Jest (Victory Gardens), Isn't It Romantic (Ivanhoe), and work at the Court, Drury Lane Oakbrook, and the Illinois Theatre Center. He returned from the 2014 summer season at The Illinois Shakespeare Festival where he appeared in Elizabeth Rex (Luddy Beddoes), Antony and Cleopatra (Lepidus) and Much Ado About Nothing (Friar Francis). In 2013 at the Utah Shakespeare Festival, he performed in The Tempest (Alonso), King John (Philip, King of France) and Twelve Angry Men (Juror #9) in rotating repertory. Broadway and Off Broadway credits include All Over Town and Awake and Sing. Tours include A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum with Zero Mostel. He has taught a Performing Shakespeare class at Victory Gardens Theatre in past years, and currently coaches actors on audition preparation. Check out his website: fredricstone.blogspot.com
